

Cool Clothes

On the course, Greg Norman always looked as cool and confident as a great white shark prowling the ocean, knowing he is the largest predator in the largest pond. And though clothes can never really give you that kind of confidence, the Greg Norman Collection of apparel has just introduced a new Play Dry 2-Below shirt that promises to keep you that cool. Made from Japanese yarn said to acclimatize the body in the hot summer sun, the 2-Below polos and mocks will join the luxury-branded ML 50 polos as part of the Norman Collection's fall line. Greg Norman Collection, 888.667.6264, www.shopatshark.com.
