Greg Norman Collection has always found success with cotton products namely its offering of Ultimate Greg Norman shirts and Luxury Ultimate 80s was born as the next installment, maintaining the same performance standards (fade-wrinkle- pill- and shrink-resistance plus an anti-curl collar) with added luxury and innovation. Luxury Ultimate 80s is the combination of a revolutionary stretch fiber called DOW XLA™ that preserves the shape of the garment while producing the ultimate in mobility and extra-fine 80s two-ply double mercerized Egyptian cotton. This fiber is exclusive to Greg Norman Collection within the golf market.
