

Greg Norman Collection: Comfortable and stylish enough to travel in, the yoga suit is extremely lightweight, and made from 92 percent nylon and 8 percent spandex Play Dry fabric. The black top is quarter zip with a contrast color zipper lining, inner collar, around the shoulders and down the side panels. The stand up collar with two-button detail tab closure will bring out the Yogi in everyone.

The black leisure pants feature a drawstring waist and two convenient slant side pockets with a not-too-loose flattering fit. Both pieces are available in sizes S - XL, have heat-sealed labels for additional comfort and retail for $69.
